secure pay raises after two years without any salary increases. Lawmakers approved the raise last year but the two-year delay prevented it from taking effect until now. Starting Monday, members of Congress will receive at least a 3 percent pay increase for 2014, based on changes that took effect on Nov. 1, 2013. Next year, lawmakers will have an opportunity to approve pay raises based on the differences between the pay now and what members are receiving in 2013.
