About This Content

The Total War: SHOGUN 2 Sengoku Jidai Unit Pack adds 10 new elite units for use across the different game modes of SHOGUN 2. Once you've purchased the content, you will unlock all 10 of these versatile units in single and multiplayer Campaign mode under the conditions stated below. They will also be available in the Avatar Conquest and single player Battle modes of the game when playing with the appropriate clan.

1) Bulletproof Samurai unit – Date clan

It takes true samurai to charge into musket fire – and prevail!

- Bulletproof armour makes them very resilient against matchlocks
- Heavy armour makes them slow
- Very good armour and melee defence
- Very good vs. cavalry
- Average melee attack

Construction requirements in Campaign mode

- Yari Dojo
 - Armoury

2) Marathon Monk – Uesugi or Ikko Ikki clan (Ikko Ikki clan requires the Ikko Ikki Clan Pack available on Steam)

Faith builds the body, and faith makes outstanding warriors.

- Very fast moving and fatigue resistant
- Good against infantry and cavalry
- Very good melee defence
- Vulnerable to katana infantry and missiles

Construction requirements in Campaign mode (Ikko Ikki clan)

- Ikko religion
- Jodo Shinshu Temple
- Proving grounds

Construction requirements in Campaign mode (Uesugi clan)

- Buddhist religion
- Buddhist Temple
- Proving grounds

3) Hand Mortar – Hojo clan

Hand mortars can lob shots over the heads of intervening troops, even over high walls.

- High arc of fire is good for attacking units behind walls and other units
- Small unit size and weak stats make them very vulnerable in melee
- Low morale
- Very vulnerable to cavalry

Construction requirements in Campaign mode

- Gunsmith
- Armoury

4) Heavy Gunner – Shimazu clan

For some targets a simple musket is disrespectful. Better by far to use a heavy gun.

- Very large muskets can damage units and buildings
- Small unit size leaves them vulnerable in melee
- Very vulnerable to cavalry

Construction requirements in Campaign mode

- Gunsmith
- Armoury

5) Wako Raider – Mori clan

Piracy prepares men to fight unfairly and with deceit. A wise commander uses these skills.

- Can deploy outside of their own deployment area
- Can walk whilst hidden and can hide almost anywhere
- Good melee attack and morale
- Weak melee defence and armour
- Vulnerable to cavalry and missiles

Construction requirements in Campaign mode

- Sword Dojo
- Military port

6) Mounted Gunner – Tokugawa clan

These mounted samurai carry matchlocks, allowing them to fire a deadly volley and then gallop away.

- Very high missile damage
 - Good accuracy but slow reload
 - Average in melee
 - Vulnerable to foot missile units

Construction requirements in Campaign mode

- Stables
- Gunsmith

7) Bandit – Hattori clan (Hattori clan only available in the Total War: SHOGUN 2 Limited Edition)

Banditry teaches a man much that is useful in warfare, such as striking from an unexpected direction.

- Can shoot whilst hidden
- Can hide almost anywhere
- Can walk hidden
- Weak in melee
- Vulnerable to cavalry

Construction requirements in Campaign mode

- Bow dojo
- Criminal syndicate

8) Long-Yari Ashigaru – Oda clan

These men carry exceptionally long spears, pikes in effect, making them extremely dangerous to cavalry.

- Excellent against cavalry
- Good defensive unit
- Vulnerable to missiles and sword infantry
- Weak morale

Construction requirements in Campaign mode

- Spear dojo
- Encampment

9) Fire Cavalry – Takeda clan

These cavalry are a sword in their general's hand, ready to slice into a battle line.

- Good against cavalry
- Good against infantry
- Good speed
- Weak against spears and naginatas
- Vulnerable to matchlocks and bows

Construction requirements in Campaign mode

- Cavalry dojo
- Proving grounds

10) Daikyu Samurai – Chosokabe clan

When archer and bow are as one, anything is possible.

- Extra long range
- Very accurate and higher damage
- Slow reload speed
- Vulnerable to cavalry
- Weak melee attack

Construction requirements in Campaign mode

- Bow dojo

- Hunting lodge

Have thoroughly enjoyed playing this game. Especially the multiplayer. Ran around with some friends for a couple hours lvl'ing and destroying monsters. 2 thumbs up.. A fun, short adventure from every day life.
Completed in about 2-hours, fair for a $3 game.

Caught my eye because the artwork was so gorgeous.
The keys are a little awkward but you adjust to them. Other than that, had no issues with the game.

Really quarky endearing game that deserves your attention.. Game is pretty cool! Controls take some getting use to but its fun and challenging. I like the music and especially the announcer voice with the deep tone. I like that there's also a story for the game that you can read! Cool theme for a game!. I've played the first Night of Azure and it was amazing, it has a chill, jazzy, and cool feeling yet action style vibe, played Nights of Azure 2: Bride of the New Moon and it's still have its vibe even with the BGM for the hotel just like the 1st game, and its gameplay is also better, along with character conversation, graphics, animation, new character upgrade feature as well as Servan upgrade feature which became better, intriguing and the story. With all that, it would remind you of playing Final Fantasy all over again (with a mix of Dynasty Warrior type of feel as well), and which if it would what number would it be, well thats up to the players, thankyou again Koei Tecmo.

I rate this game a 10/10, very highly recommended for those who are interested. (especially its FF vibe) and the always adorable and mysterious Christophorous is in it as well, i thought she'd be a goner from the first game because of Arnice (whom i still love in the series and have so many questions regarding her in this game), but her funny moments I will never get tired of.. Very fun game, would recommend to other software engineers.

The autosave isn't perfect, and it isn't obvious that autosave is a feature when you first encounter a bug that stops play until you go back through the Main Menu and select Continue. Having a "Save" button in the ingame menus would be awesome.

The number of days that games sell for could be lengthened. Some hints about which categories go together when researching games would also be nice, but not troublesome. The research speed on the game development and marketing skills is far too low, with 4 hours of play not moving it off the first skill level while the others are 8-9 or so by that point.

The availability of 6 timeslots in a day make it very slow to progress, particularly when two are used for food and coffee early on. Could change it up to 8 and rebalance the rest of the game around that.. a very good game and i love it.. Was waiting for steam release of this for a while.

A very solid mega man style game.

A decent challenge, very balanced in terms of difficulty, each boss and stage are humanly possible to clear yet present a retro platformer style challenge.

Cute characters.

Tons of fun to speedrun this.

Great game, If you are a mega man fan you can safely grab this, you will not regret it.

Great classic. They did a good job porting this to more recent operation systems.. Awesome game! The rope swinging is so satisfying, and it feels great to land those difficult jumps. If you liked cavestory you will love the art style, music and mood. Really enjoyable so far, cant wait to finish it.. I'm pretty certain the "Magitek" is powered by Robert Heinlein spinning in his grave.... Very juicy for a cheap pizza. But grade is 4,5/5, as I cannot taste the salami.. I did not enjoy the bird eye view style.

The limited selection of planes to pick 3 on each side total of 6.
the game play itself to me was pretty interesting i enjoyed it for a good few mins.
Single player was mostly what i enjoyed but right when i tried online i was having a good time up to the point when someone came in.
I thought they were experienced but then i got a good glance he was doing a inf evasive move while firing missiles in the process and it was none stop taking out every single craft A.I on my side when he stopped and i fired at him he didn't bother dodging he just took the shots both guns and missiles and still was in the air.
Most of this portion of the review was cleared up by bankler although i still question the fact this person was still able to use the evasive skill and appeared to have inf stamina is still lingering in my mind**
Figured he was cheating and that annoyed me. i said no.. done this game was not at all what i expected though. OOROROROOOAOOAOAAAARGH. You at the mall
- Inspect Wok the tiger diner
- It says slogan for Wok the tiger is Gourmet chinese food is just a wok away (puns already)
- You say: A wok somewhere else probably (BURRRRRNEEEED)
- Back out of room to find yourself beaten to death by a robot policeman

10/10 Would goosebumps the game again. I like the way the game looks at the moment... But it definitely needs improvement. Quest tracking fails alot, If you quit a game and try to reload you may get stuck on a load screen (permanently), or just load into a game where the missions you had as active have been thrown into the completed section... The developers have a long way to go even if they say they are happy with the way the game is at its current stage... It is nowhere near ready for final release and will need much more content added to make it worth even a discounted price.. Awesome game.

For linux one of best strategy I found.

It has still some bugs but I guss it will be patched
